Final details

We'd like to meet you and your chosen caterer six to eight weeks before your wedding to go through the finer details of your booking.

Minimum and maximum numbers

Each function suite has a minimum number of guests, although we can be flexible, subject to availability. The Woodlands Suite holds up to 280 guests when no equipment is required, and the Brandon Suite holds up to 100 guests.

Candles

For fire safety reasons, naked flames are not permitted. LED candelabras may be used instead and are just as effective.

Entertainment

We can arrange entertainment through our preferred suppliers. You're also welcome to book your own, provided the hotel has approved the supplier and checked their public liability insurance and PAT testing certificates.

Cancellation

If your wedding is cancelled, a cancellation fee will apply in line with the terms and conditions of your contract.
